

Wonders of the Solent

The Solent is home to some of the UK's internationally important seagrass meadows; providing food, refuge and breeding grounds which support marine biodiversity and important local fisheries for sea bass and cuttlefish.

They also protect our shores from erosion and store CO₂, helping to fight climate change.

Find out more about our wild Solent, and how you can help to protect it, by visiting our website.

hiwwt.org.uk/WilderSolent

